

EMPLOYMENT FIRST AID

SUPPORTING YOUNG PEOPLE STAY IN WORK

Supporting Young People

IMPACT Community Service's initiative, Employment First Aid is the only service in Australia dedicated to helping young people stay in work. The service is 100% free and anonymous. Our team of friendly and professional mentors help young people resolve personal and workplace issues that are affecting their ability to stay in work.

We deliver skills & support through Employment First Aid's own ESER initiative, a series of interactive tools to develop employment skills, endurance and resilience.

R&C nominated yet again

IMPACT's Recycling and Collections facility have been nominated yet again for another award! This time, the National Employment

Services Association (NESA) have announced the R&C facility as a finalist for the Innovation in Disability Employment Team award.

All award winners will be announced during the Gala Awards Dinner on 22nd of August in Melbourne so we wish our team the best of luck.

Gary wins NDS Buyability ADE Award

IMPACT R&C worker, Gary Rhodman has won the NDS Buyability ADE Employee section, being selected from 71 other applicants.

Buyability will be sending through a film crew to do a story on Gary highlighting his 34 years as a worker at the facility. Please congratulate Gary if you see him.

Winner!

Graduation day for 35+ students

We would like to give a HUGE congratulations to all our students that graduated from their respective courses. 38 students from our Certificate III courses in Hospitality (Course Code SIT30616), Individual Support (Home and Community) and Individual Support (Disability) (Course Code CHC33015) were presented with their certificates at their graduation ceremony held at Impact Community Services.

Leanne Donaldson MP, Member for Bundaberg, was also in attendance and able to personally present the awards to each recipient and we thank her for her time. We still have a number of students that are on their way to completing their study and we have new courses commencing soon.

Staff Bio - Milly

Meet one of our superstar Youth Transition Workers, Milly as she shares a little about herself.

Milly has been with IMPACT for 17 months and forms part of the Transition to Work team, who take pride in their role in helping young people aged 15-21 years old on their journey to employment. The team have a strong focus on helping young people understand what is expected in the workplace and develop the skills, attitudes and behaviours expected by employers.

They also like to have fun while they do it!
